B. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. We report with concern that, two days after the deadline for registration, no one has applied for admission to the LAS East Asia - Regional Survey, scheduled to start on 3 November. In the light of the current crisis in the Taiwan area and the long range concern with both China and Japan, this total apathy seems particularly shocking. It is however but another illustration of the current failure of the Agency to take full advantage of its own language and area training capabilities.

2. Concerning DTR's report to a recent staff meeting that Mr. Karamessines was pleased with our proposal for "Saturday Special" briefings of dependents, [] has just advised that he is considerably more interested in [] Dependents' Briefings. Mrs. [] implied that neither she nor Mr. Karamessines had been fully aware of what we try to do in our Americans Abroad briefings, and we will discuss the implications with DDTR. [] has discussed with [] the possibility of duplication of effort, raised by Mrs. [] and it is agreed that none exists. Our briefing is the only presently scheduled Agency introduction to living and working with foreigners for inexperienced personnel going abroad. It should be considered a "must" - in the spirit of the "Helms Proposal" - for those going to an area for the first time, who could not, or should not, be enrolled in our proposed "Americans Overseas Seminar."

3. We are attempting a "crash" briefing on 29 October of 8-10 employees and dependents going to Latin America within the next three weeks. This will be a modest, half-day effort, in view of the lack of time for proper preparation of briefing materials. We consented to make the attempt because WH advised that they would probably have no more than 2 or 3 candidates for our proposed "Saturday Special" on 17 January.

4. Both instructors and students in [] - BCS #1 have been much pleased with results of the first three of five sessions on the [] people. Emphasis in these sessions is on attitudes and behavior, and [] has attended the most appropriate ones for ideas bearing upon the proposed American Overseas Seminar. Ed [] brilliant introduction to the series was followed by descriptive presentations of the "inside view" by two charming ladies of contrasting [] cultural backgrounds, with [] and [] serving as discussion leaders. The third session featured William Crockett of State and [] on living and working with [] from the viewpoint of American officials stationed []. The instructors' first sessions alone with the class, for the purpose of training them to develop a more critical appreciation of [] affairs, have been promising [] 25X1

5. [] of PP Staff, who is on two weeks' active duty with Army's ACSI, paid us a visit to obtain ideas on organization and bibliography for about 20 basic country studies now under production for MAAG personnel abroad. He appeared to be persuaded that heavy emphasis should be placed on people-to-people and person-to-person relationships in each country. Studies for [] headed the list.

6. []

7. [] has returned from [] where he completed the OFC, and has reported for his HQ stint with NEA. 25X1

B. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. Three Part-Time Basic (RSW) classes in Romance languages started this week. One class in Spanish with six students, two in French with six and five students respectively. One Romanian Basic Reading class also started with four students. This brings the teaching load in the Romance section to 94 hours weekly, a maximum with the present staff.

2. This has otherwise been a routine week, with everyone concentrating on the classes which have just begun.
